The city centre, motorway and airport are also easily accessible. South facing and full of natural light, the property sits on a private plot with a sunny swimming pool, solarium area with artificial grass, mature garden with flowers and fruit trees, including mandarin and lemon trees, and a barbecue area with storage. The spacious covered porch, with two separate seating areas, creates a wonderful space for family gatherings and outdoor dining all year round. The house is distributed over two well planned levels. Two bedrooms share a large bathroom, while the master bedroom enjoys a walk in wardrobe and a generous en suite bathroom. The living room, kitchen and master bedroom all have direct access to the outdoor area, making daily life especially comfortable and practical. Built with solid qualities, all rooms are exterior and benefit from high ceilings that enhance the sense of space and light throughout the home. Features include split air conditioning, solar panels for hot water and a beautifully integrated pool area. What truly makes this property stand out is its location.
